

10.1_B

Term	Definition	Stress pattern project sponsors project funding
project methodology
project board
project manager project management plan project budget
key deliverables
project timescale
initial project plan

10.1_B

Answers

Term	Definition	Stress pattern
project sponsors	the people who provide the money and support for the project project funding	the money for the project project methodology	a set of principles, techniques and procedures used to plan, manage and execute projects project board	the people who have overall management responsibility for the project project manager	the person who manages the project from day to day project management plan	the plan for managing the project project budget	the available finance for the project and the different areas the finance is provided for key deliverables	the most important outputs or results from the project activity project timescale	the amount of time between the beginning and end of the project according to the project plan initial project plan	the first version of the project plan	