

U1_Extra

Complete the crossword puzzle with words from the unit.

Across

2. device used for recording sounds or making your voice sound louder when speaking or singing to an audience
5. part of a computer made of silicon
7. the process of expressing the meaning of writing or speech in a different language
10. two actions or ideas which are not possible or acceptable together because of basic differences
12. a set of actions which have a specific order and lead to a particular result

Down

1. someone who examines facts or materials for their job in order to give their opinion on them
3. a small electrical device or piece of software used to calculate numbers
4. the smallest unit of data
6. a person who writes computer programs as their job
8. failure to operate in the normal or usual manner
9. a small computer program which copies itself to other computers and can cause damage
11. the information you put in

U1_Extra

Answers

