

U3_Extra

Complete the crossword puzzle with words from the unit.

Across

4. 1,000 megabytes
6. a vibration we hear as sound
8. a piece of equipment that is part of a camera and used to focus the light
10. the method computers use to make files smaller
12. the flat surface on the front of a computer, television or other electronic device, on which you see pictures and information
13. used to record moving pictures and sound
14. when some of a file's information is lost, so the file size is smaller
15. 1,000 kilobits
17. 1,000 millionth of a metre
19. used to listen to music without disturbing anybody

Down

1. consists of many tiny dots called pixels
2. a particular way of doing something, especially one you need to learn new skills for
3. the power of a computer screen or a printer to give a clear image, depending on the pixels used
5. the number of oscillations (waves) per second, measured in hertz (Hz)
7. a unit for measuring radio waves: 1,000 cycles per second
8. when more of a file's information is kept, but the file size is larger 9. the part of a computer, radio, phone etc., that the sound comes out of
11. the small individual areas of a computer screen, which, together, create the whole image
16. a system of numbers that uses only 0 and 1
18. a device that reacts to light, heat or pressure in order to make a machine do or show something

U3_Extra

Answers

